

Western Sierra Law School Curriculum

Effective April 25, 2023

Class Duration

Students receive 10 weeks of instruction in a quarter, taking into consideration any holidays or winter break.

Attendance

Regular and punctual attendance is required for at least 80% of the regular scheduled courses.

Minimum Requirements for J.D. Degree

Students must complete 120 units to earn their Juris Doctor (J.D.) from Western Sierra Law School. The CA State Bar Committee of Bar Examiners requires a minimum of 27 units (270 hours of classroom attendance)/year for 4 years (any consecutive 12-month period) and passage of the First Year Law Students' Examination to receive a J.D. degree.

First Year Law Students' Examination

Students must take the First Year Law Students' Examination upon successful completion of their first year of law study. Students who pass the examination within the first three administrations of the examination after first becoming eligible to take it will receive law study credit up to the time of passage of the examination. Students who pass the examination on an attempt following the third administration of the examination after their first becoming eligible to take it will only receive credit for one year of law study toward qualifying to take the California Bar Examination.
